

Search Project

Presentation Rubric

Outcome: Students will communicate technological literacy through a formal presentation.

Students: _____ Hour: _____

Topic: _____ Date: _____

Introduction

(Students will demonstrate a brief understanding of this technology and engage the class in the study of the topic)

0	1	2	3	4	5
No introduction	short introduction	appropriate introduction/ some explanation of the importance of this technology in our society		appropriate introduction/ excellent explanation of the importance of this technology in our society

Technological literacy

(Students will show an understanding of how the technology is used, managed and assessed, those that are technology literate will have the ability to use concepts from science, math, social studies, and language arts. students will understand a broader technological world rather than to work with specific pieces of it)

0	3	6	9	12	15
little technological literacy displayed		some technological literacy displayed		strong technological literacy displayed	exceptional technological literacy displayed

How the technology works

(Students will educate the audience on the core concepts of their technology; including the attributes of design and function, and innovation and invention. this will also include answering reasonable questions from the audience)

0	3	6	9	12	15
no explanation shown		poor explanation shown		average explanation shown	excellent explanation shown

Eye Contact and Speaking Skills

(Through the use of strong speaking skills students will educate the audience on the core concepts of their technology.)

0	3	6	9	12	15
no eye contact poor voice		some eye contact average voice		good eye contact good voice projection	excellent eye contact strong voice projection

Demonstration of the technology

(Through the use of a “hands on” demonstration students will educate the audience on the core concepts of their technology.

0	3	6	9	12	15
no visual demonstration		poor visual demonstration	average visual demonstration with some explanation of how the technology works		excellent visual demonstration with a strong explanation of how the technology works

Fact card

0	2	4	6	8	10
no summary developed		incomplete summary of technological advancements	appropriate summary of technological advancements, dates and picture		complete summary of technological advancements, dates and picture

Conclusion

0	2	4	6	8	10
no summary developed		incomplete summary of core technological concepts	appropriate summary with average insight of core technological concepts		complete summary with excellent insight of core technological concepts

Comments: _____

TOTAL SCORE / 85

Search Project

Written Report Rubric

Outcome: Students will communicate technological literacy through a formal paper.

Students: _____ Hour: _____

Topic: _____ Date: _____

Introduction

(Students will demonstrate a brief understanding of this technology and engage the class in the study of the topic)

0	1	2	3	4	5
No introduction	short introduction	appropriate introduction/ some explanation of the importance of this technology in our society		appropriate introduction/ excellent explanation of the importance of this technology in our society

Technological literacy

(Students will show an understanding of how the technology is used, managed and assessed, those that are technology literate will have the ability to use concepts from science, math, social studies, and language arts. students will understand a broader technological world rather than to work with specific pieces of it)

0	4	8	16	18	20
little technological literacy displayed		some technological literacy displayed	strong technological literacy displayed		exceptional technological literacy displayed

How the technology works

(Students will educate the audience on the core concepts of their technology; including the attributes of design and function, and innovation and invention. this will also include answering reasonable questions from the audience)

0	5	10	15	20	25
no explanation shown		poor explanation shown	average explanation shown		excellent explanation shown

Written Communication Skills

(Through the use of strong written communication skills students will educate the audience on the core concepts of their technology.)

0	4	8	16	18	20
poor writing skills, lacks flow, numerous spelling or grammar errors		average writing skills, some flow, some spelling or grammar errors	good writing skills, good flow, few spelling or grammar errors		excellent writing skills, excellent flow, no spelling or grammar errors

Conclusion

0	1	2	3	4	5
no summary developed		incomplete summary of core technological concepts	appropriate summary with average insight of core technological concepts		complete summary with excellent insight of core technological concepts

Bibliography

0		3		5
no bibliography		some citations but incomplete		complete bibliography

Comments: _____

TOTAL SCORE 85